The picture shows Daniel Goderwis, II being awarded The Lloyd Keith Miller Memorial Scholarship which comes with a $100.00. Daniel also received $25.00 for 2nd Place in the chapter George and Stella Knight Essay contest. He is a freshman at Williamstown High School. His father Daniel Goderwis, I was awarded the Flag Certificate. His son and wife picked up the award for him. The compatriot next to President Jackie Miller is James Whitehead, Jr.

The posters above were the winners of the chapter poster contest.

Simon Kenton Chapter

In Sept 2017 the suburb of Cincinnati, Green township lost one of their Police dogs in the line of duty. Jack Sinkking a member of my Veterans Group the USS Hornet Breakfast Group suggested to the Green Township Police Department that we be allowed to purchase the re-placement police dog. Lt. Hill said that would be great that the total replacement amount would be $10,000 dollars and that included the training.

Thanks to a major donor the we were able to raise the total amount. We chose the name Raider after Doolittle Raiders, Tom Griffin and Lt. Col. Richard E. Cole. (Ray Hughes—Blue Air Force shirt)
